TANAKA PRECIOUS METAL GROUP Co., Ltd.

TANAKA Concludes Naming Rights Agreement for Tokyo Tatsumi Ice Arena

Facility to Be Nicknamed “TANAKA Ice Arena”

Expanding Opportunities to Experience Ice Sports and Contributing to the Development of Sports

TANAKA PRECIOUS METAL GROUP Co., Ltd. (Head Office: Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Group CEO: Koichiro Tanaka) has entered into a naming rights agreement for the Tokyo Tatsumi Ice Arena with Central Sports Co., Ltd. (Chuo-ku, Tokyo; President, Representative Director and Executive Officer: Seiji Goto), the designated operator of the Tokyo Tatsumi Ice Arena. Consequently, the facility's nickname* is TANAKA Ice Arena, and the nickname has been in use since August 30, 2026.

The Tokyo Tatsumi Ice Arena was developed by renovating and repurposing the Tokyo Tatsumi International Swimming Center. It accommodates a variety of ice sports, including ice hockey, figure skating, short track speed skating, curling, and para ice hockey.

Since its founding in 1885, TANAKA has contributed to the development of society for over 140 years through its business operations centered on precious metals. TANAKA is also actively engaged in ongoing support for the sports sector. In fiscal year 2025, TANAKA was certified as a Tokyo Sports Promotion Company for the 11th consecutive year and selected as a Tokyo Sports Promotion Model Company for the fourth time in total. Furthermore, the company fosters the popularization and development of sports through sponsorship and support of events and organizations such as the Tokyo Marathon and the Japanese Para-Sports Association.

Through the TANAKA Ice Arena, TANAKA aims to expand opportunities for people to experience ice sports, while also contributing to the popularization and development of sports, including para-sports.
